World History Center
2012 Faculty Research Award

The World History Center will award a research grant of $2000 to a University of Pittsburgh faculty member working on a historical topic. Eligible are all faculty members at the university. This award is to support interdisciplinary, transnational research on historical topics.

Applications consist of (1) a two-page letter of application explaining the project and (2) a current curriculum vitae. Application materials are to be sent electronically to the Katie Jones (joneskh@pitt.edu) at the World History Center by March 30, 2012.

The World History Center Advisory Board will review the applications and select the awardees. The award will be announced by April 15, and the funds will be available July 1 for FY 2012 – 2013.

At the conclusion of the research project, the awardee is encouraged to present a public lecture on the topic, to be arranged through the World History Center.

The previous awardees;
