EVENTS
Speaker Series: East Asia, Eurasia, & the World
September 12, 2014 – Alexis Dudden, University of Connecticut
"Modernity's Diffusion and Studying the Japanese Empire"
Noon, 3703 Posvar Hall

October 10, 2014 – Michael Khodarkovsky, Loyola University of Chicago
“The Empire of the Steppe: Russia’s Colonial Experience on the Eurasian Frontier”
Noon, 3703 Posvar Hall

October 24, 2014 – Bin Wong, University of California, Los Angeles
“Political Economies of the 19th-c. Economic Change under Industrial Capitalism”
Noon, 3703 Posvar Hall

October 31, 2014 – Peter Perdue, Yale University
“Asia in World Histories: Frontiers and Environments”
Noon, 3703 Posvar Hall

November 14, 2014 – Panel Discussion
Noon, 3703 Posvar Hall

November 21, 2014 – Nile Green, University of California, Los Angeles
Making Mosques in America and Japan; or, How Islam Went Truly Global”
Noon, 3703 Posvar Hall

Conferences at Pitt
May 8-9, 2015 “Researching World History in the Schools: Nationwide and Worldwide”. Sponsored by WHC with support from GAP; organized by Pat Manning.
4130 Posvar Hall
Brown Bag Talk
3703 Posvar Hall

Additional talks
January 14, 2015 Dr. Andrew Pearson, Director, Pearson Archaeology Ltd / Research Associate, Department of Archeology and Anthropology, University of Bristol, UK.
"Distant Freedoms: St. Helena and the Abolition of the Atlantic Slave Trade, 1840-1872"
4:30 – 6:00 3703 Posvar Hall

February 6, 2015 Dr. Yuval Noah Harari
"The Sapiens Secret of Success: How Humans Conquered the World."
12:00 – 1:30 3703 Posvar Hall

March 20, 2015 Dr. Ruth Mostern, University of California, Merced
“The Yellow River; As an Earth System and a World System in Medieval and Early Modern Asia.”
12:00 – 1:30 3703 Posvar Hall

Cosponsored events
Baltic Symposium, October 9-10, 2014.
Sponsored by EUCE, directed by Katja Wezel

Carlos Cañete talk, Nov. 10, 2014. 4:00 PM 3703 Posvar Hall
Sponsors: Medieval and Renaissance Studies Program, University of Pittsburgh; The Department of History, Carnegie Mellon University; The World History Center, University of Pittsburgh
Co-Sponsors: The Department of Modern Languages, Carnegie Mellon University, Jewish Studies Program, University of Pittsburgh; The Pittsburgh Consortium for Medieval and Renaissance Studies, Department of English, Carnegie Melon University

“Theory and Methodology of Comparison in the Humanities,”
Feb. 5, 2015 Humanities Center, 602 Cathedral of Learning
Organized by Magali Armillas-Tiseyra and Gayle Rogers.
Co-sponsored by the Center for Latin American Studies, boundary 2, the World History Center, the Global Studies Center, the Graduate
Program for Cultural Studies, Hispanic Languages & Literatures, French & Italian Languages & Literatures, History of Art & Architecture, History and English

“Mphutsi: An AIDS Rumor in Malawi”
March 31, 2015 4130 WW Posvar Hall 4:00 – 6:00 PM
Co-sponsored by African Studies Program, Department of Africana studies and the World History Center

Annual WHC Members’ Reception
January 14, 2015 Wednesday 3:00 – 4:30 pm. 4130 Posvar.

Teaching World History – see Alliance website www.alliance.pitt.edu

CHIA activities – see CHIA website, www.chia.pitt.edu

Other conferences of importance to WHC:
European Network in Universal and Global History, Paris, Sept. 4-6, 2014
Asian Association of World Historians, Singapore, May 29-31, 2014
Global Studies Consortium, New Delhi, June 2015
World Economic History Congress, Kyoto, August 3-7, 2015
NOGWHISTO and CISH, Jinan, August 23-29, 2015

Administrative & Organizational Meetings of the World History Center
World History Graduate Theme faculty participants [open to all]
  Fall – October 15, 2014. 2:00 PM 3900 Posvar
  Spring – about March 4, 2014
World History Undergraduate teaching meeting [Diego, Pat, Nancy Condee and others?]
  Fall – October 15, 2014
  Spring – about March 4, 2014
WHC Advisory Board: selection of awardees [participants: Diego, Pat, two others to be selected]
  Fall awards – November 11, 2014 (includes Visiting Scholar?)
  Spring Awards – about March 20, 2014
Collaborative faculty meetings [no meetings yet scheduled, but the need is noted for meetings with colleagues in Education, Global Studies, Sociology, etc.]

Undergraduate student meeting. Fall 2014. To be scheduled with help from Tony Novosel and John Stoner.