World History Seminars
September 10, 2013 (Tuesday); 3703 Posvar Hall, 4:00 - 5:30
Monica Green, Arizona State University
“Data-Starved, or How a Medievalist Became a Historian of Global Health”

February 4, 2014 (Tuesday); 3703 Posvar Hall, 4:00 – 5:30
Urmi Engineer, University of Pittsburgh
"Towards a Global History of Yellow Fever: An Ecological, Social, and Cultural Approach."

March 19, 2014 (Tuesday); 3703 Posvar Hall, 4:00 – 5:30
Rainer Buschmann, California State University, Channel Islands
"Iberian Perspectives in the Global Pacific"

Conferences
“Global Historical Population,”
October 25-26, 2013; International Institute of Social History, Amsterdam
Co-sponsored by CLIO-INFRA

“The Life Sciences after World War II”
May 2-3, 2014; University Club
This is the second World History of Science conference, supported by the Andrew Mellon Foundation

“Han Dynasty Thought”
May 23-24, 2014; University of Pittsburgh
Co-sponsored by the Department of History, the Asian Studies Center, and the Confucius Institute

“Flying University of Transnational Humanities”
June 23-27, 2014, 4130 Posvar Hall
An international conference, co-sponsored by the Research Institute for Comparative History and Culture, Hanyang University, Seoul

Teaching World History
Two workshops will be held for pre-service teachers, during the months of March and April, 2014. Details to be announced.
Meetings

Annual World History Center Members’ Reception
  January 15 (Wednesday), 3:00 – 4:30 p.m.
World History Graduate Theme faculty participants
  October 21, 2013 (Monday), 12:00 – 1:00 p.m.
  February 3, 2014 (Monday), 12:00 – 1:00 p.m.
World History Center Advisory Board
  November 14, 2013 (Thursday) 2:00 – 3:00 p.m.
  March 20, 2014 (Thursday), 2:00 – 3:00 p.m.
Undergraduate student meeting
  March 26 (Wednesday), 4:00 p.m.