

World History Center

Fall 2022 Schedule of Events and Funding Proposal Deadlines

EVENTS AND WORKSHOPS

- August 24, 12:30-2:00 PM: “Interdisciplinary Approaches to the Global Past: History and Archeology in Dialogue.” Open to any students or faculty interested in world historical pedagogy. In the History Dept. Faculty Lounge, 3703 Posvar Hall.
- September 7, 9:00-10:30 AM: “Historical Zomias: Centering Margins in North and South Asia from the 10th-18th Centuries,” with Tanuja Kothiyal (Ambedkar University Delhi) & Lance Pursey (University of Aberdeen). On Zoom.
- October 24, 2:00 PM: Virtual Book talk with Mae Ngai, The Chinese Question: The Gold Rushes and Global Politics organized by the Migration and Belonging: Interdisciplinary Perspectives Working Group. On Zoom.
- November 7, 11:00 – 12:00 PM: Climate Fiction Reading Group. Entanglement by Vandana Singh. A limited number of copies will be made available. 3900 Posvar.
- December 12, 11:00-12:00 PM: Climate Fiction Reading Group. Tentacle by Rita Indiana. A limited number of copies will be made available. 3900 Posvar.

COSPONSORED EVENTS

The WHC is pleased to collaborate with our colleagues on campus.

- September 8, 2:00-3:30PM: “Difficult Cartographies: Race, Power and Resistance in Pittsburgh and Rio.” 3703 Posvar Hall (hosted in partnership with Center for Latin American Studies).
- October 14-15: Plantation Societies in Comparative Perspective (organized by CLAS & Afro-Latin American Research Institute at Harvard University).

DATES AND DEADLINES

- September 23: Spring Working Group Proposals
- October 26: Spring 2023 Digital Atlas Design priority applications

For more information, please contact the World History Center, 3900 Wesley W. Posvar Hall, whc@pitt.edu, or visit worldhistory.pitt.edu. To register for events, visit calendar.pitt.edu/department/world\_history\_center

WHC ONGOING ACTIVITIES

WHC is hosting the following meetings of faculty and students who are conducting collaborative research this term.

- Digital Atlas Design Internship Program, Thursdays from 3:00-5:00PM, 3900 Posvar Hall.
- Migration and Belonging: Interdisciplinary Perspectives Working Group. Contact Jan Musekamp Dept. of History for details.
- Transforming Systematic Racism: Historic Truth Telling and Reparations Working Group. Contact Jackie Smith, Dept. of Sociology, for details.
- Trans/Anti-Imperialism Working Group. Contact Vicky Shen, Department of History, for details.

DIGITAL WORLD HISTORY OFFICE HOURS

Drop in to the WHC and meet digital world history postdoctoral fellow Nathan Michalewicz to discuss topics and questions related to digital humanities, digital history, and geographic information system (GIS) mapping. Office hours are on Thursdays from 12-2:45 PM.

- September 1, 8, 15, 22, 29
- October 6, 13, 20, 27
- November 3, 10, 17
- December 1, 8

K-12 OUTREACH/ENGAGEMENT EVENTS

- September 28, 5:00-6:30 PM: “The World Historical Gazetteer: Teaching Place in the K-12 Classroom Part 1” with the Asian Studies Center. On Zoom.
- October 12, 5:00-6:30 PM: “The World Historical Gazetteer: Teaching Place in the K-12 Classroom Part 2” with the Asian Studies Center. On Zoom.

WORLD HISTORY CENTER COFFEE HOUR

Join WHC monthly for coffee and pastries to catch up on WHC events and activities or to talk about incorporating world history in your classroom or research. 3900 Posvar.

- August 29, 11-12 PM
- October 3, 11-12 PM
- October 31, 11-12 PM

University of Pittsburgh

World History Center
Dietrich School