

World History Center

Spring 2022 Schedule of Events and Funding Proposal Deadlines

The Limits of Networks in World History: Peripheries and Beyond Series

The World History Center will sponsor a series of events about survival, resistance, and social formation in and beyond the outer reaches of states and other large networks.

- March 16, 12:30-2:00PM, "Theorizing Networks in World History," a presentation by Patrick Manning (University of Pittsburgh).
- June 11, "New Approaches to Frontier History," a teacher's workshop hosted by the Alliance for Learning in World History. Contact ALWH@pitt.edu for details.
- Medieval Zomias Roundtable, time and date to be announced.

Other Events and Meetings

- January 12, 12:30-2:00PM: World History Pedagogy Series Syllabus Workshop. Open to any students or faculty interested in world historical pedagogy.
- March 23, 12:30-2:00PM: "Digital and Spatial Approaches to the History of Slavery" co-organized with the Center for Latin American Studies (CLAS). Featuring Keila Grinberg (University of Pittsburgh, Karl Grossner (WHC Affiliate), Ruth Mostern (University of Pittsburgh) and Daryle Williams (UC Riverside).
- March 30, 12:30-2:00PM: Read and Discuss, The Dawn of Everything: A New Human History by David Graeber and David Wengrow. A small number of copies will be available to people planning to join the discussion. Contact WHC@pitt.edu
- World History Pedagogy Series "Teaching the 20th Century in World History" with Diego Holstein, Ruth Mostern and Molly Warsh. Time and date to be announced.

Dates and Deadlines

- January 18: World History Association conference travel funding application (history graduate students)
- February 13: Research and Travel funding applications
- March 25: Fall 2022 Digital Atlas Design priority applications

WHC Ongoing Activities

WHC is hosting the following meetings of faculty and students who are conducting collaborative research this term.

- Digital Atlas Design Internship Program, Thursdays from 3:00-5:00PM

- World History Center Works in Progress Seminar
 - February 8, 11:00AM-12:00PM
 - February 22, 11:00AM-12:00PM
 - March 15, 11:00AM-12:00PM
 - April 5, 11:00AM-12:00PM
- Black Built Pitt Working Group. Contact Bria Walker, Dept. of Theater Arts, for details.
- Migration and Belonging: Interdisciplinary Perspectives Working Group. Contact Jan Musekamp, Dept. of History, for details.
- Transforming Systematic Racism: Historic Truth Telling and Reparations Working Group
- Trans/Anti-Imperialism Working Group. Please contact Vicky Shen, Department of History, for details.
 - Next meeting: January 21 at 3:00PM

Digital World History Office Hours

Drop in to the WHC and meet digital world history postdoctoral fellow Susan Grunewald to discuss topics and questions related to digital humanities, digital history, and geographic information system (GIS) mapping. Office hours are from 1-3PM in the World History Center. Contact Susan Grunewald for more information.

- January 13, 27 (On Zoom)
- February 3, 10, 17, 24
- March 3, 17, 24, 31
- April 7, 14, 21

Cosponsored Events

The WHC is pleased to support events hosted by our colleagues on campus. Visit their websites for more information.

- March 24-26: 20th & 21st Centuries French and Francophone Studies International Colloquium, Department of French and Italian

WHC End of the Year Open House

Join us for an open house showcasing our accomplishments and learn more about how you can be involved in the WHC. Light refreshments will be served. Wednesday, April 13 at 12:30PM, location TBA.

For more information, please contact the World History Center, 3900 Wesley W. Posvar Hall, whc@pitt.edu, or visit worldhistory.pitt.edu. To register for events, visit calendar.pitt.edu/departments/world_history_center

University of Pittsburgh

World History Center
Dietrich School